Facebook competition

This will be an online competition.

Each like you get is a vote.

This year we are providing an opportunity to get your tattoo artist/s involved. As part of the prize for being the Facebook winner, your tattoo artist of choice can have the chance to win a free booth at the show. Encourage your Tattoo Artist to donate a tattoo voucher valued at no less than $150 (this will need to be supplied before the online comp deadline yet to be confirmed) and also get behind you to support you and their work by sharing your photo and getting your votes up.

The Facebook comp will begin during the lead up to the show and will be drawn two weeks before the show; this will allow your artist time to prepare for the show. Your artist will also need to cover all cost to get to and from the show; this includes bringing all necessary gear to operate the booth. (Auckland Custom Culture & Tattoo will provide what would normally be included in a standard booth)

If you have any questions around this please ensure you clarify with us first before providing misleading information.
